

Hubdoc & Xero Expenses: what's the difference?

Hubdoc and Xero Expenses are both Xero tools to help you keep track of the money going out of your business and understand your spending patterns.

But there's a difference:

Hubdoc

Xero's data capture tool for getting bills and business receipts into Xero easily and making it simpler to match transactions with your bank feed.

Xero Expenses

Xero's expense management tool for simplifying employee expense claims and automating approval and reimbursements in a single app.
